media in the Community Room.

content and presenter

President’s Report
1. Next meeting is 7:30 on October 16. One of the most important responsibilities of a Library Trustee is attending and participating in our monthly meetings. In October we may have a refresher about the responsibilities of a Trustee.
2. Slightly behind on Strategic Plan, will present full draft in October

Director’s Report
1. Community Outreach/Cultural Explorers/Carribean Event went well, but the attendance was lower than expected possibly because of weak advertising and competition with a beautiful fall day. The Committee will review the entire Cultural Explorers program to identify its strengths and weaknesses while also looking for emerging patterns in attendance.
   a. There’s an issue of staffing during bigger programs like Cultural Explorers.
      Because of our limited budget we just can’t afford to bring on additional staff for these programs so it is entirely volunteer driven, which raises concerns about burnout. But at the same time, these programs emerged from requests from the public. Our ability to meet the public’s needs is hampered because of our finances.
2. Personnel, Employee Handbook is coming along
3. Personnel, PT Librarian position remains empty, largely because our salary is much lower than neighboring libraries. Irvington offers $10 more/hour than Dobbs Ferry.
   After tweaking the position, we have two solid candidates.
4. Collections, the Baker & Taylor Lease is doing great. Of the 50 books we have received so far, 46 are circulating right now.
Committee Reports

Finance
1. Committee presented a draft of the Fund Balance Policy, which The Board is creating at the request of J. Chuhta, Village and Library Treasurer. Trustees felt the language was opaque, so the Committee will rewrite and share over email with hopes of approving the policy at October’s meeting.
2. Almost time to begin thinking about the 2020/21 budget process

Personnel
1. The Committee collected mid-year evaluations of Library Director from the Library Trustees and will share that feedback with Elizabeth soon. Meanwhile, Elizabeth to complete a self-evaluation and to review the Plan of Service she created 18 months ago.
